Sugamya Pustakalaya:
Getting Started
Sugamya Pustakalaya overview
The Sugamya Pustakalaya is the aggregator of accessible versions of books available in India. This library has been created by DAISY Forum of India to provide access to books to persons with print disabilities. It is poised to become the largest collection of books in accessible formats. A one-stop resource for the reading requirements of all those persons who due to blindness, weak eyesight or any other disability cannot read the standard print. Bookshare, the largest International online library for persons with print disabilities is also integrated into Sugamya Pustakalaya. All the titles available in Bookshare library for India can be searched and downloaded through the Sugamya Pustakalaya. Note that persons without disabilities are not entitled to use the books downloaded from Sugamya Pustakalaya. Sharing or circulation of content downloaded from Sugamya Pustakalaya is prohibited and may lead to legal penalties. The following are the key stakeholders and beneficiaries of Sugamya Pustakalaya.

1. Persons with print disabilities: They can get access to this library through any of the DAISY Forum of India member organization. For the first time in India, these individuals will be able to log into the website, search for accessible format versions of books created anywhere in the country and download it to start reading.
2. Organizations producing accessible content: These organizations will be able to upload their books available to the Sugamya Pustakalaya and thereby reach out to print-disabled across the country. They will
